

Something for Everyone

December 2015

Looking for a Saturday family outing? Stop by and explore downtown St. Petersburg's Saturday Morning Market and find some good eats, great beats, and local charm. The market is debuting its' new "Taste Cart" that includes cooking demonstrations using a Florida grown fruits or vegetables, and a free tasting of delicious recipes sure to impress the whole family! The cart will in action every Saturday, except the 2nd Saturday of each month, at 11:30am throughout the season. You can find the Taste Cart in the "Backyard" just waterside of the Market near the Stadium. We have chefs and cooks from our community prepare a vegetable or fruit dish for everyone to taste, and you get the recipe to take home. The market also accepts SNAP/EBT and has a wide selection of healthy produce at affordable prices. Make this a Saturday morning family tradition and come out and try something new! www.saturdaymorningmarket.com

Gail Eggeman